

Introduction and acceptance of terms

- a. Your participation in the Digitox Challenge (also known as Digitox) (“Event”) is governed by these Terms and Conditions (“Terms”).
- b. Your participation in the Event constitutes your agreement with, and acceptance of, these Terms and if you do not accept these Terms you may not participate in the Event.
- c. Any reference to "us", "we" or "Youth Futures" means Youth Futures WA - ABN 111 242 115 65.
- d. These Terms may change or be updated from time to time and it is your responsibility to ensure that you remain in agreement with the current Terms posted here.

Registering for the Event

1) Registration

- a) You must live in Australia.
- b) You must register online to participate in the Event.
- c) If you are 15 or under, your registration and participation is subject to parental consent (see below).

2) Are you 15 or under?

- a) If you are 15 or under ("child" for the purpose of these Terms) please make sure that you check with your parents or a guardian before registering for the Event or creating an Event fundraising page. Ask them to read these Terms.
- b) If you are 15 or under, your parents or guardians must consent to you participating in the Event and accept these Terms.
- c) Please do not sign up for the Event unless you have a responsible adult to help you collect donations.
- d) Please be safe in how you ask people for money: don't go door knocking or collecting donations in public without a responsible adult with you.

3) Parents/guardians

- a) Please carefully read these Terms. By you, or a child you are responsible for, registering for the Event, you agree to be bound by these Terms.
- b) Parents or guardians will be solely responsible for their child's participation in the Event (refer in particular to Acceptance of Risks and Waiver of Liability below).
- c) We strongly encourage parents and guardians to continue the conversation with their child(ren) about safe internet use practices, including safe use of their photos and other personal information to be uploaded to the Event online fundraising pages. We recommend parents, guardians and team leaders visit the Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner website for information and tips for young children, teens and parents to be online safely.
- d) We ask parents to closely supervise how their child(ren) are collecting and handling donations, both to keep them safe and to make sure that the money makes it to Youth Futures as quickly as possible.

Fundraising for the Event

1) Online fundraising

- a) Participants who have registered for the Event may establish a fundraising page to fundraise for Youth Futures. Take care when promoting your fundraising page on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube and any other social media platform you may be using.
- b) Keep your user name and password in a safe place.
- c) You promise that all information you give to us will be true and that you will keep your details up to date.
- d) You promise that you own or have permission to use any content that you post on your page.
- e) While we will be monitoring and moderating content (comments, photos and text) on the "Digitox" website, fundraisers must monitor their pages for inappropriate content, as we cannot guarantee that content will always be appropriate.
- f) We can remove any content you post for any reason at any time without notice.
- g) You agree with Youth Futures' Terms of Use of our website and logo.

2) Cash donations

- a) Participants are encouraged to fundraise online only. Where necessary participants may use the donation collection form found in the fundraising pack. Participants are responsible for collecting and banking cash donations following the details specified in the fundraising pack and returning the collection form within 2 weeks of the challenge.
- b) All cash donations must, by law, be banked no later than must be banked within 14 days of receipt.
- c) Cash donations will not be reflected on your fundraising page.

Participation in the Event

1) Acceptance of risks

- a) We understand that by switching off all means of communications, you may inadvertently miss an emergency call. We recommend keeping phones on and answering calls which appear to be an emergency.

2) Waiver of Liability

- a) Except to the extent limited by law, you release and waive any claim you may have against Youth Futures in respect of any injury, death, loss or damage (including without limitation any aggravation or acceleration of an existing medical condition) you suffer as a result of your participation in the Event.

3) Insurance

- a) Youth Futures Public Liability Insurance does not extend to your participation in the Event, and therefore you are responsible for organising your own insurance.
